

LUMBEE TRIBE of North Carolina

Worthy of a Wish (WOW) Project

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina Worthy of a Wish Project is to honor and enrich the lives of deserving tribal members through good deeds and wish granting celebrations that unite generations. Our vision is to make our tribal community a nicer place to live.

Wish Recipient Requirements

- Member of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina
- Demonstrate financial need
- Documented history of giving back to the community
- Must be cognitively, emotionally and physically capable of communicating and experiencing the wish

All requirements must be met. Proof of age and tribal membership are conditions of this application and must be forwarded with the completed wish application. Other documentation will be requested if needed. Special cases may be waived.

Restrictions on Types of Wishes

WOW Project grants qualify wishes as funding and resources are available. LTNC reserves the right to deny requests for any purpose in conflict with the project mission. LTNC will deny the following types of wishes:

- political or legal in nature
- housing
- bill payments or requests for cash
- medical items including surgery or pharmaceutical items
- physical assets including houses, autos, boats, planes, etc.
- dangerous in nature

Make a difference.
Make a donation. Volunteer.

Your donations will be used for basic needs, comfort items, living life to the fullest, veterans' wishes or last wishes. Or you may specifically indicate how you want your contributions used.

Reasons to Volunteer or Donate

- Make a difference in your Community
- Positively impact others lives
- Self-Satisfaction
- Build resume and/or for Scholarship purposes
- Educate the public
- Meet new people
- Be part of a DYNAMIC TEAM.

The final goal of the Tribal Volunteer Program is to provide an opportunity for Tribal members to contribute to the betterment of their community creating a sense of ownership and enhanced Tribal pride and participation.

We are celebrating the lives of deserving tribal members and making their dreams come true.
