

Robeson County Guardian ad Litem Program

Be the Voice for a Lumbee Indian child

Did you know that everyday American Indian children in our community are abused and neglected?

You can help put an end to their pain by donating your time as a Guardian ad Litem Volunteer that represents a child in the court system.

You can make a lifetime of difference for a American Indian child.

Guardian ad Litem

A child's advocate in court

If interested, please call 910-671-3077
Deborah Maynor, Program Supervisor

