“EXAMINING THE TRANSITION TO COLLEGE EXPERIENCES OF LUMBEE STORIES THROUGH STORYWORK”

WHEREAS, The Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina (“Lumbee Tribe”) is a recognized American Indian Tribe of the State of North Carolina, subject to the Constitution of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina (“Tribal Constitution”) and its inherent powers and self-government, and;

WHEREAS, Article VII, Section 1 of the Tribal Constitution delegates all legislative authority to the Tribal Council of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina (“Tribal Council”), and;

WHEREAS, The Tribal Council implements a Health Committee to oversee the health and well-being of the Lumbee people, and to address all health disparities of tribal members.

WHEREAS, The above project will conduct virtual interest surveys with second-year UNCP students who identify as Lumbee regarding the transition to college experience of Lumbee students and how cultural identity shapes this experience.

WHEREAS, These virtual surveys will be conducted on second-year students who attend UNCP. At the conclusion of her completed surveys, she will summarize the findings to be included in her dissertation. This information will provide increased knowledge to educators regarding cultural identity and its impact on college transition.

WHEREAS, All persons involved with the project agree to receive prior approval before any written report is disseminated to the public or research journal. And, all data will be given to the Lumbee Tribe to be used in future grant writing. At the conclusion of the study the researcher will return and report the findings.

THEREFORE, Be it resolved the Tribal Council of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina does hereby support the dissertation project activities and all the activities in this project.
