

COPY

03-15-14P03:07 RCVD

Welford Clark, et al.,
Petitioners

Case no. 2014-0004

VS.

Order

Supreme Court of the Lumbee Tribe
Respondents

The background, back story, and facts are located in other orders of the Court relating with this same issue, mainly the contempt hearing of Former Tribal Speaker Pearlean Revels. This court order is a modification of any and all prior order setting sanctions against Former Tribal Speaker Pearlean Revels.

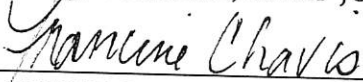

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDER AND DECREED BY THIS COURT that Pearlean Revels, then Speaker of the Lumbee Tribal Council be:

1. Held in contempt;
2. Removed from Tribal Council as Speaker and Tribal Council Member;
3. Barred from running for Tribal elective office in the 2013 election;
4. Barred from running for Tribal elective office in the 2014 election or any special 2014 elections because the returning of Tribal property was not within the 10 day time period as stated under the previous order;
5. Pearlean Revels is entitled to any and all others benefits, entitlements, etc., as any other Lumbee Tribal Member, except as withheld above.

THIS UNANIMOUS DECISION WAS DECIDED IN A SPECIAL CONFERENCE AND THEREAFTER SIGNED BY EACH MEMBER OF THE LUMBEE TRIBAL SUPREME COURT.

GARY LOCKLEAR, CHIEF JUSTICE, SUPREME COURT OF THE LUMBEE TRIBE

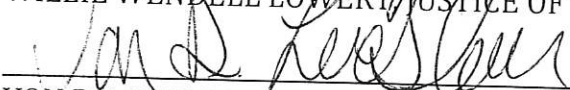

FRANCINE CHAVIS, JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE LUMBEE TRIBE

TINA DICKE, JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE LUMBEE TRIBE

WILLIE WENDELL LOWERY, JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE LUMBEE TRIBE

VON D. LOCKLEAR, JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE LUMBEE TRIBE