DESIGNATION OF TRIBAL DISTRICT FOR PURPOSE OF TRIBAL VOTING IF LIVING OUTSIDE THE LUMBEE TERRITORY

You are entitled to vote in the Tribal elections, if you are Tribal enrolled member eighteen years and older living outside the Tribal Territory (Robeson, Scotland, Hoke, and Cumberland Counties, NC). However, you must declare a voting district for purpose of tribal voting. The district you select is a permanent designation and should include the community where you or your ancestors grew up, or the community you consider "home" inside the Lumbee territory.

HOW TO DESIGNATE YOUR TRIBAL DISTRICT:

Listed below is a description of the Lumbee Tribal Territory. Please place an X mark beside the precinct that you are designating for purpose of tribal voting. The corresponding district number should be entered on Line 7 Section I of the Absentee Ballot Request Application. No ballot will be forwarded to any voter who fails to fully complete the requested application and/or fails to meet all other voting requirements.
